Alumnae Presents

'Day at Races'

Southland Alpha Delta Pi alumnae will applaud the sulkies April 2 at their sixth annual benefit party at Santa Anita and host a cocktail dansant in the Turf Club after the last race. Mrs. James Crane Lewis of Brentwood, president of the sorority's Southern Area Council, has named Mrs. Edward L. Henry of Glendale chairman of the day at the harness races. Assisting is Mrs. David Bauer of Anaheim.

Proceeds go to the McCausland-Holmes Foundation, which creates scholarships and fellowships for medical students interested in research in medicine, surgery and related sciences. Projects are carried out through the USC School of Medicine. Dr. Frances Holmes of Los Angeles and Beverly Hills, co-founder of the non-profit foundation with her husband, Dr. A. M. McCausland, is an Alpha Delta Pi alumna.

Special hostesses for the event include Province president, Mrs. J. Lary Kuhns of Woodland Hills, regional alumnae director Mrs. William A. Morse of Laguna Beach and state membership chairman Mrs. Howard S. Mason of Glendale. Many of the 1,500 alumnae invited are planning to arrive early for luncheon on the Terrace.

Members of the South Bay Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae Association who are part of the welcoming committee will be Mmes. Robert Dunaetz, Samuel Wernli, Manhattan Beach; Robert Wattenbarger, Robert Aukerman, Miraleste; Richard Reinhardt, Torrance; Grant Laney and G. R. Fagan, San Pedro; Richard Van der Weyde, Robert Landon of Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Civic Light Opera to Present

Program at Luncheon

Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra will sponsor the third and final Angel Luncheon Musicales of the season on Thursday, March 31, at 11:30 a.m. at the Los Verdes Country Club.

Mrs. Franklin A. Steinko, general chairman, has again arranged an outstanding musical program. Members of the Long Beach Civic Light Opera Assn. will be presented in a program entitled "Long Beach Civic Light Opera, Our Musical Past, Present and Future." Marvin Cloyd, one of the association's outstanding stars, will act as master of ceremonies.

Under the direction of Betty Kimber Toppen, excerpts from favorite Broadway musicals will be performed. Those participating in addition to Cloyd will be

CDA Court to Stage Shower

For Babies of the World

Court Our Lady of Victory, 1344, Catholic Daughters of America, will hold its third annual Baby Shower for Missions on Thursday evening, March 31, at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Avenue I, Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Charles Buckley, grand regent, announced at the March business meeting, that invitations printed through the courtesy of Miss Jane Kilcayne, grand regent of Court St. Michael 1633, had been sent to all courts in the state. The invitation is further extended to anyone interested in helping infants and young children of unfortunate circumstances throughout the world.

New and used baby clothing in good condition, canned milk or baby food, vitamins, bottles and blankets are items suggested as appropriate gifts. Cash donations will also be accepted.

Mrs. Roger Ste. Marie, shower chairman, has appointed Mmes. Floyd Olson,

Felix O'Reilly, Joseph Caello and Adrian Engel hostesses for the evening and will be assisted by Mrs. Nicolas Humting and Mrs. James Butler with decorations. Refreshments will be served by Mmes. Theresa Fajen, Duane Kustic, Morris Wolcatuik, William Grass, and Fred Gervig.

Traditional pink and blue colors will predominate the table decor. Centerpieces will be a miniature cradle. Cupcakes decorated with frosting booties and nut cups shaped like booties will complete the theme.

Gifts of the past two years have been distributed to Casa de Cuna Orphanage at Tijuana, Mex., St. Anne's Home for unwed mothers;

Catholic Relief for needy families; Northern California flood victims; Indian Missions in California and Arizona. Baby clothing and medicines were also sent to Operation Handclasp for use of United States troops in Viet Nam under the President's people-to-people aid.

GAY, COLORFUL EASTER BONNETS

Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae will give the women of the area an opportunity to choose their Easter hats in a delightful spring tea setting and to aid the Cerebral Palsy Foundation as they make the purchase. Making plans for the Hat Tea, to be held Saturday April 2 at the Dlott home, Palos Verdes Peninsula are Alpha Chis, from left, Mmes. Barry N. Smith, Ralph Brubaker and John Thayer. Stage Hat Tea Benefit

South Bay Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae Club will hold its second annual Hat Tea on Saturday, April 2, at the home of Mrs. Arthur S. Dlott, 29535 Oceanport Road, Palos Verdes Peninsula, between the hours of 1 to 4 p.m.

Making all the arrangements for the Tea are Mrs. J. E. Thayer, general chairman; Mrs. Barry Smith, invitational chairman; and Mrs. Ralph Brubaker, hat chairman.

Coming before Easter, the Hat Tea serves as an excellent opportunity for the women of the South Bay area to purchase their Easter finery. Not only will there be many varieties of new hats available for trying on and buying, but there will also be a wide selection of spring and summer shift dresses and straw handbags.

Alpha Chis serving at the tea table during the afternoon will be Mmes. Dale VandenBrink, president of the club; I. F. Richardson, vice president; Frank Herodes, secretary; and Ralph Brubaker, treasurer. Others assisting will be Mmes. Barr Ruston, Fred Spurgeon, and Robert McLendon.

While serving as a "Shopper's Delight" for the women of the South Bay area, the Tea will also benefit the community. All proceeds will go to continue Alpha Chi Omega's philanthropic work locally in the field of cerebral palsy.
